

e·merg·ing lead·er [i-mur' jing le' der] n.

1. An 18 to 35 year-old with a passion for faith and social justice OR
2. Someone with less than three years' experience in activism, social justice, and ministry.

Discover YOUR place in the anti-poverty movement.

The Emerging Leaders Program at The Mobilization to End Poverty

- Meet others like you
- Work for change in your community and beyond
- Be a part of history

April 26-29, 2009, Washington, D.C.

The Mobilization to End Poverty will be a historic gathering of Christians in a powerful movement committed to the biblical imperative of reducing poverty. President Obama has been invited to address us during the event.

Opportunities for Emerging Leaders at The Mobilization include:

- Café Koinonia. An evening coffeehouse featuring Blue Like Jazz author Don Miller. (This event is sponsored by Wesley Theological Seminary.)
- Voice & Vocation: Discerning and Living Your Call
A training session to empower you to be an effective advocate in your church or on your campus.

Student rates and scholarships are available.

Check out The Mobilization to End Poverty on Facebook!
Visit www.sojo.net/mobilization to register.

Hosted by SOJOURNERS.
Sponsored by World Vision, Wesley Theological Seminary, Oxfam, ONE, Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, and Convoy of Hope.